Hello my sweetest of loves!!

I tell you what.

First off, GOOD NEWS, the energy seems to be starting to shift FINALLY!!

Last few weeks it has been REALLY hard to get the readings out of me because I don't want to keep going into each room to feel out the energy. (And on that I will be sharing how I do readings when my new website launches in January 2017 because I have gotten people asking that recently!)

And this energy does bring a sense of wanting to turn back and go to times past because it feels endlessly heavy and intense on our systems.

But alas this week shows up and I had a blast bringing the readings through! So enjoy those, my loves!! And enjoy the shifts!

I also am still being tripped up in my world with STILL no internet. After over 2 weeks I finally got an appointment and he thought he fixed it, but he did not.

And now I have to wait until next week for him to come back again! CRAZY MAKING.

But something we are seeing in the world is what I experienced with him and other men at this time.

So Aaron, the Windstream technician, finally comes while I was on the phone with my web developer, Heather -- which I should have gotten off with because I really needed to make my point to Aaron.

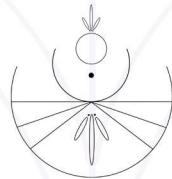

But so I was telling him how my lines are crossed with someone else because when they are on the internet, I have no access. But the moment they get off the megabits fly back up to 6 and I have full access again. So I am a slave to their habits.

But I don't know their schedule. So there are some days I can have internet for several hours in the day, and others it is blocked up from 5am to 10pm and days in a roll like that.

So its quite unpredictable and wildly infuriating.

MOON VIBE GUIDE

ISSUE 24 DECEMBER 5 -11

Some days I would wake at 4am to see I have my 6 megabits and within minutes of getting to the computer to try to take care of things, they had gotten back online and knocked off my access until 10pm!

So I'm telling this to Aaron as he gives me this pained look like I am talking nonsense and have NO CLUE.

He's like, "WHO? WHO? WHO is your line crossed with?"

I'm like, "I don't know but it is!"

And he still looks at me with brow pierced as he shuts me down from that idea and tells me it was the passcode in the Windstream station and that he reset it and now my internet is back up to 6.

And I explained that when they AREN'T on it (Who is they?? Who is they??) that I DO have it back up to 6 megabits, but every day at least by 2pm the line will be taken again and blocking me out until 10pm when they go to sleep.

But he just shakes his head and says NO. It's fixed.

And since I was on the phone and because I WANTED to believe him, I said okay and thank you.

And then a few hours later the guy I told you about with the firewood, Maitreya, left after FINALLY coming to put in a fence for my dog that I have been waiting for for 6 months!!

And when I got inside to watch my first movie in over 2 weeks -- it does the same thing!!! No access. Blocked. Internet NOT fixed. So they had gotten back on the computer and we were STILL sharing this line where THEY have seniority.

So what I experienced was the masculine energies that we are feeling right now that want to HUSH YOU, or choose for you, or rule over you, or shut you down and demand that you follow what THEY think is best.

We all know this.

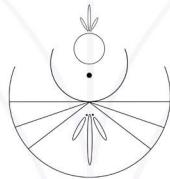

We all know where we are not allowed to use our voices and instead to just abide with what others want us to do.

And most of us DO just that.

We just say okay and thank you.

MOON VIBE GUIDE

ISSUE 24 DECEMBER 5 -11

It's the woman thing to do -- or the programming that we have taken on due to how men have WANTED us to react to things.

Just like with sexual abuse. Many men think it is okay until you say, NO. But so often that NO is the hardest thing to come out of women's lips.

So Aaron brushes me off and doesn't even consider that I am correct or could have a clue about this.

And after he leaves I go outside to see what was going on with the fence and I see that Maitreya has cut down all these trees and all these branches that keep my house fully private from the road!!

He totally "clears it" -- as he put it, by massacring the trees and leaving my house in view where before it was completely tucked away and hidden! He even "cleared" part of the property next to me making the edge of my property even more in the open and out of privacy!

I was like, DUDE. What the fuck!! He keeps saying that it is fire prevention and that the neighbors will be so happy.

But I am like, MAITREYA I rent this house still!!! The landlord did not approve this and I did not ask for anything more than building a fence and clearing out the brush WITHIN the fence so Memo can have more room to roam.

I was like, THIS IS NOT YOUR CALL.

I did not order trees being cut down, although I DID appreciate that he cut down a few dead pinion and cedar trees for my winter firewood. But I didn't ask for it. So he should have ASKED ME FIRST. And I didn't ask for him to clear my property, which is a permanent landscape change.

And seriously he didn't hear a word I said.

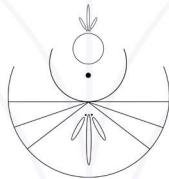

He was so resistant, and forcefully masculine and kept saying fire prevention and neighbors happy.

He was like might makes right and wouldn't consider one word of what I was trying to say.

And I said it all -- trust me. Down to me ONLY asking for a fence build and forget the neighbors -- they don't OWN this land. This was a decision that should only have been made by the owners and NOT Maitreya.

MOON VIBE GUIDE

ISSUE 24 DECEMBER 5 -11

And while Maitreya was off cutting down the forest around me -- my sacred empath haven -- he had these other workers who were putting up the fence and they put it up like a bandage around things and not actually buried in the ground!

I was like, dude, there are inches open from the fence to the ground! Memo will TOTALLY dig under that in a heartbeat. It was such a trip. I waited 6 months for THIS?

Even on that one, Maitreya says, "If I had done it. I would have buried it." As I'm like, blink blink, but I HIRED YOU, so if you hired them YOU need to monitor their work and not just buzz around my RENTAL property cutting everything down to fuck WITHOUT ASKING ME FIRST.

So that's happening.

But what these men were doing with me were shutting me down and giving me no respect for my ideas or opinions, which I actually am not at all used to!! Before this I can't remember in a long time when I was treated like this. It hasn't been a pattern in my life because I have born with this BIG MOUTH that doesn't shut up about injustice!! And people tend to pick up on that so they lay low around me!! (laughing)

But this energy is about shut down. It was that lower vibration male in its truest form. Shut down the female. You silly clueless female.

You don't know what you are talking about and get over it, I DECIDE HOW THINGS GO.

Even Maitreya STILL is convinced he had every right to do that. I can't even get it through to him!! He just blocks me out and holds solid that what he did was a-okay.

And on that, think how a woman would handle this!!

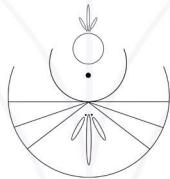

To all the women here, would you NOT feel so bad and so apologetic? I mean cutting down trees is not easy for most of us women! We want them to stay and grow and clean our air and beautify our lives!

Or wouldn't you ask before doing it? You would hold this consideration perspective that this was another persons land and you would want to be clear on telling them WHAT you had planned for this job.

But instead this dude just steam rolled over me and basically said I DECIDE how this is going to be done and you just need to take it.

MOON VIBE GUIDE

ISSUE 24 DECEMBER 5 - 11

AND you guys remember with my old landlord who I told you had killed Moon Bear to "keep me from seeing her die." He did something that was NOT HIS CALL TO DO and he steam rolled over me and killed my dog that I may have been able to wake back up and heal.

He stripped me of that right and just goes along like nothings wrong.

And THAT is a bit of the powerlessness that MANY of us are going to experience in the weeks forward as we hear more news of how we are losing rights and having to just TAKE IT.

But do not fret, we will grow stronger voices so that we CAN say NO, or I DON'T LIKE THAT, or THAT IS NOT RIGHT.

And I can guarantee that you will be fought as your voice grows louder -- so see that as a GOOD SIGN that you are ruffling the feathers of some lower vibrational masculine mentalities who want to control you and keep you small.

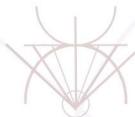

This treatment is unacceptable but we have to show these certain men/controlling forces that we DO have voices and we DO have opinions and we DO have power that they cant even touch!

The feminine essence has been diminished to a mere spark, and fortunately enough of us are waking to our spark and together we will burn this shit to the ground.

I love you my fiery ass kicking spirits of love. Lets rise one step at a time by using our voices and declaring what we KNOW in our hearts is the correct way to be IN and OF this world.

LOVE. LOVE. SO MUCH LOVE

ISSUE 24

Okay today is all about MOVEMENT and energy focused towards bringing things into a healthy balance and getting them more on track towards a proper path.

There are adjustments that will be made, and inspired FROM the continuing theme where provocation is moving us to stand firm in a direction and way of being that we KNOW is the correct path. There is resistance, but we are growing more resilient and head strong with standing our ground.

Our minds are also opening in PROFOUD ways to the truth and to what has been hidden from the people -- which causes a sense of powerlessness. But when we come together we light a fire within that grows more potent and that instills the truth that we DO have power – we just need to use it.

So right now we are thinking in terms of how to correct this, how to move this into a more positive light, how to bring justice to this situation and also HOW to hold the vibration of peace so that things CAN fall into position in the future.

Now one thing going on today is that we may not realize the potency of our punch, or our words, or a message we are wanting to get across. So you or another may come on REALLY strong with an opinion and I am hearing that you just need to STOP, BREATHE and respond from a place of love.

DO NOT BITE BACK and do not share your frustration about what is coming at you because it CAN GROW SUPER BIG. And it really just feels like frazzled nerves or irritation coming from FEAR. It feels like how we can be when we are over extended and someone wants even more from us. It feels like fried nerves. So be careful!!! We need to move through this and not make any decisions based on what is provoking us. But decisions to want to be better peoples and to bring the peace no matter what insanity slaps us in our face from out of nowhere IS ENCOURAGED.

Sudden actions come today and they can be FIERCE. I also am being shown a person with a big sword and cutting off someone's head!!! So I think we will be wanting to do this with people to shut them up and keep them from talking in their low vibing ways. We of course will not do this though!! Remember those deep breaths.

Numerology Vibration: 1 7 8

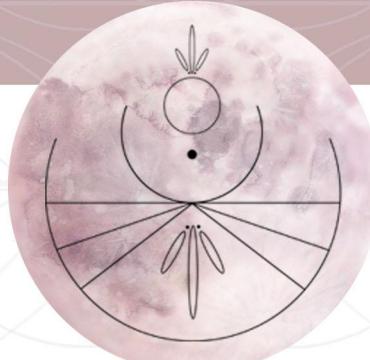

1: Energy is moving towards and igniting the themes of the other numbers.

7: You may feel misunderstood or will be around conflict with others. Find a way to blend the sides so that a point of understanding can be reached.

8: Hold the Galactic Vision! Be positive and keep your eyes on the horizon. What you are putting out there is coming RIGHT BACK your way!

I am learning to be a better person!

I am learning to control my anger

When things push my buttons.

I am learning to get my point across

Without being mean and speaking from my pain.

I am learning through YOU pissing me off

And making me feel like I want to ring your neck.

But. I must take responsibility for ME

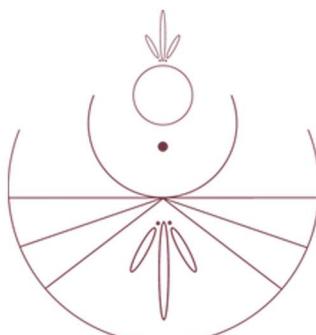

Therefore, I am taking 3 deep breaths and then

Remembering that I can handle this situation high vibe style.

I CAN learn a new way to handle provocation

Without lowering myself to another level.

I let that old way go!

ISSUE 24

Sleepy day! Today you will wake in a foggy, groggy state and staying home and OUT of others drama will be the dream.

There can be a HUGE need to hide away and not have to tangle up with what I am feeling as HIGH DRAMA where people are focusing too much into THIS moment with feeling like they can't take another minute of things.

And it can grab you into its sticky web and have you feeling very unstable and unsure of your future. I am seeing that we are looking into a foggy situation where there is not clarity, but we are being asked to keep going forward.

Also your intuition can REALLY be guiding you at this time, so if you already were feeling the need to call in sick, do so. And if you feel like you DON'T want to go visit someone or pick up their call or answer their emails, DON'T DO IT. Our intuitions feel very fine tuned in that we are being guided and warned throughout our day.

I also feel that honoring the retreat today and doing something that nurtures your soul is going to offer an opportunity to come up with something that frees your mind and aligns your path for future steps! So it's almost like an answer, but more like a hidden insight coming forward to bring course direction or correction.

There is a DELAY to this energy but its all good. Don't try to force something to play out before its time because you may inadvertently attract something that brings more trouble.

I am feeling clashes of masculine and feminine energies with a steam rolling approach, or how people who are sensitive can find it hard to stand up and say NO.

So this is happening today and if it happens to be with you, STAND UP even if you sound like a crazy loon in getting your opinions out. There is the need to bring a voice forward and declare how you need things to be. There is the need to hear someone's opinion who would normally play small and not want to make a stink. There is the need to come out of a place of hiding and make your feelings KNOWN.

Numerology Vibration: 1 8 9

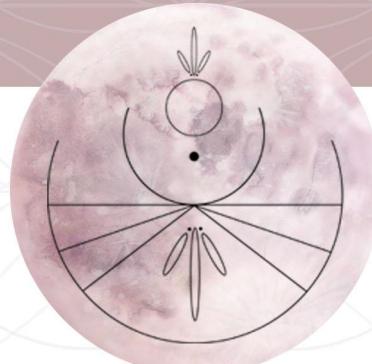

1: Energy is moving towards and igniting the themes of the other numbers.

8: Hold the Galactic Vision! Be positive and keep your eyes on the horizon. What you are putting out there is coming RIGHT BACK your way!

9: Something is ending and needing to be released. Have trust even though things feel confusing. Give away in order to receive.

I am feeling sensitive
About speaking up and
Expressing how I truly am feeling.

But if I am holding something back,
I am making myself smaller
By believing that my opinions do not matter.

So even though I know you are happier
When I just nod my head
And agree with everything you do,
I still need to tell you that I NEED MORE.
And I have feelings too

Aww shit. We be in some troubling waters right now. There are tears galore and insecurities running deep to the core.

I am feeling people responding in VERY sensitive ways as wounds are hit and the feeling that we have NO HOME is coursing through our blood.

This is a day to NOT go looking out at other peoples things that can have you feeling that you have no purpose, because I tell you what, you WILL walk away feeling like a loser who is destined to be and do nothing in life. Heads are hanging low and fragile is the state of the energy.

We also may feel challenged by authority or others who are questioning us and causing us to feel like we are doing something wrong. This can have people playing small and like a wounded little victim.

This won't last because it is but a breeze blowing through -- and sure to ruffle our feathers, but nothing to take seriously. I actually like this energy because what I am feeling is like when you have the mix of Aries and Pisces together where there can be a dampening to the power of Aries.

We aren't in the Aries moon yet, but it's showing up in this reading because it is pulling the Pisces out of stuck positions where they want to just sit there and feel self-defeated.

Aries is saying SNAP OUT OF THIS. I am feeling us being moved forward into a more optimistic perspective of things that normally causes us to feel not good enough. And the energy coming through is saying enough is enough.

It is as if we are being slightly scolded in falling into the same ruts over and over, as we again question ourselves and think we have nothing to offer the world.

This feels like someone getting feisty with us for the purpose to wake us up to what we are doing to our futures through thinking we are so flawed. So if someone pushes you and provokes you, know this IS for your good in a way because it will have you picking yourself up and remembering that your purpose is divine and RIGHT ON SCHEDULE. Now go forward again.

#MOONVIBETRIBE

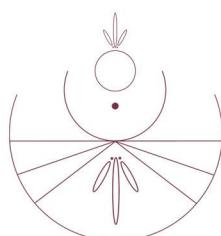

Wait a minute.
I recognize these feelings that have washed over me.

I have been here before.
I have been filled with this doubt and insecurity before.

So let me recall how I felt JUST AFTER these familiar feelings
Took over my life in times past.
Let me remember how this journey played out...

And if I remember correctly
I rose even stronger with confidence
After waking up from the illusion
Of thinking I was not good enough.

So this time I will take the short cut
And get straight to remembering that I am fucking amazing.
How could I have forgotten that I am this wonderful!!

Today there is something important that will occur that is asking for you to REMEMBER WHO YOU ARE! This feels like situations are coming from others where your true spirit will be called forth -- and you VERY WELL may respond in ways that are not so comfortable to you!! BUT. This powerful spirit coming forward to express IS who you really are -- and at this juncture in history we are being called forth to remember that we are here now to correct situations that are repeating like a loop in history.

So agitation is an energy we will feel for some time as we stand up to oppression and programming that we KNOW is not correct. But at the same time, you heard it -- agitation, frustration, irritable nerves ARE the guideposts of what is out of order. And I am seeing people around this day REALLY irritating others with what they are standing up to say, BUT what they have to say NEEDS to reach the surface.

So there will be a squashing or a belittling to the words you may have to speak about -- but you must remember that you are FULLY SUPPORTED in releasing them out of your system. There is a LIGHT shining on US right now that is sort of firing us up to speak unabashedly about subjects that, honestly, others would rather we keep buried.

So I am seeing this as us stirring up a big mess that has been hidden below and it IS causing a disruptive scene because others DO NOT want to deal with this. There is the message that some people want to just hope for the best, while keeping the darkness hidden and out of sight, and others who are saying WE MUST deal with this darkness in order to LIVE a life that is the best. So the latter is actually progressive change, while the former is holding an illusion in place through MUCH effort.

BUT. To be a truth speaker and to uncover the dark is an action greatly opposed. So I am seeing a troop of many people heading in the direction of truth, but they are getting shot down by others trying to keep them quiet, so they are turning around and reconsidering their actions. As they walk backwards, they bump into even MORE people bringing the truth and light and THAT encourages them to try it again and to continue on with what they KNOW is the only way to bring healing and peace. So if you turn around and think it is best to keep your mouth shut about what you feel, that is okay --but you will meet others on your path who will re-ignite you to see that this is THE ONLY WAY to a world we want to be living.

0: Notice that something is returning or coming full circle. You have been here before.

2: Needing to come together and bridge two perspectives. Work to create an understanding or peace from what is going on around you.

ISSUE 24

BIG DAY. BIG ENERGIES. STRONG OPPOSITION. Today I am feeling a big wind sort of energy trying to push me backwards. BUT. At the same time I am not feeling like I should! I am not caving to this. I am feeling like, OH REALLY AND WHO SAYS??!! -- with a sassy look on my face of determination as a strength builds from within that is almost forcing me to do whatever I can to NOT be pushed back or denied.

I also just got the image of something I talked about in last weeks podcast where I was telling you how the owner of this one job told it later how I came in and DEMANDED they hire me! I don't remember using force but I DO REMEMBER being totally determined that I WOULD get that job. And I did. And it was great!

So there is a determination in us that is also building so that we will feel resistant to the resistance. Before we may have just gotten to the door and seen that it was closed so we would turn back -- but now we are fully driven to kick that damn door down and to show someone who REALLY is boss. US!!

Now there also is something building between men and women where SOME MEN are really having a hard time with the strength building in women.

But some are not okay with relinquishing their power, as that is how THEY are seeing it. Being programmed to think that power only lies between the legs where there is a penis, HAS put a bit of a chip on the shoulders, and that chip is being knocked off in the ones who are the most resistant to change.

But some of these other high vibing men LOVE their strong and opinionated women. It is a complement to their soul to be around a woman who stands firm in declaring what they do or do not want to see happen. So I see some men smiling with admiration of the strength rising in women and others who will have NONE OF IT as their disrespect for women runs deep and their minds can never open to an idea of equality.

But at this time many people are rising to a new perspective and vision, wanting to START OVER and rewrite some history for those who are younger and still being influenced.

Numerology Vibration: 1 2 3

1: Energy is moving towards and igniting the themes of the other numbers.

2: Needing to come together and bridge two perspectives. Work to create an understanding or peace from what is going on around you.

3: Something is being shared or communicated today. Expect lots of movement, potentially positive or negative.

 Standing firm as a forerunner
 Here to create a new world
 Where love rules,
and peace is the desired destination.

SATURDAY || 10 December 2016

ISSUE 24

Today we have the opportunity to see the error of our ways in regards to the words we used in defending something or engaging in a battle with others. Today a release comes where we strive to forgive them AND ourselves for losing our cool or reacting from a lower vibing position.

We also are facing more resistance where we feel blocked, diminished or insecure DUE TO another person's actions.

This also feels like a sensitivity thing, so it may be that we see or hear something and it just fills us with doubt or feeling like we are not good enough and have no gifts.

Something comes that may pop our bubble, but we won't stay down long! So if you feel a bit depressed and hopeless about things, just sit tight with those feelings but give them the space to grow INTO a situation of great inspiration TO move forward.

Remember that depression and stillness so often then reach another position of great passion for moving forward and creating change. Just think about Trump winning the presidency, although NOT the popular vote, which sort of says our vote DOES NOT COUNT, right?

But after he won, the people RAGED and stood up in massive numbers. THAT is like this situation where something comes that ignites us with new passions to create change or bring the betterment to this world of ours.

So the low has just as much of a purpose as the high! If not for moronic opinions and stuck in the past repressive mentalities we would have nothing to stand up for! And this time IS about standing up -- whether for ourselves, someone else or our beliefs.

And if not for those times when we feel hopeless and destined to fail, we would not experience the flip side as SO INSPIRING AND HOPEFUL. So no matter what sort of rubble we have at our feet currently, there still is great light piercing through trying to get us to LOOK UP and remember that this is NOT the end of the world and that we WILL SURVIVE and we WILL thrive.

Numerology Vibration: 1 3 4

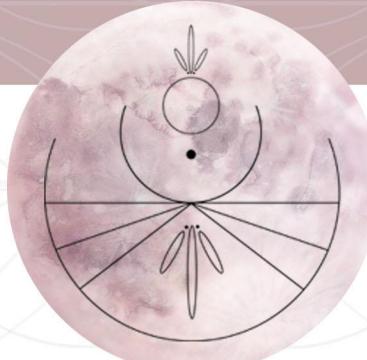

1: Energy is moving towards and igniting the themes of the other numbers.

3: Something is being shared or communicated today. Expect lots of movement, potentially positive or negative.

That's how I learn to appreciate my God

Though my courage made me try

Because the footprints show you are by my side

You can lie to a child with a smilin' face

Tell me that color ain't about race

You can cast the first stones, you can break my bones

But you're never gonna break

You're never gonna break my faith

Faith and hope ain't yours to give

Truth and liberty are mine to live

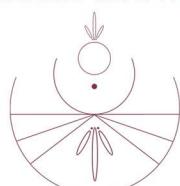

You can steal a crown from a king

Break an angel's wings

But you're never gonna break

ISSUE 24

Plant your visions on the future you desire to bring and do NOT give up on what you know is the life you are destined to live. We are being asked to look through the illusion of this one moment and of the past we have walked thus far, and to strive for something better where things are balanced out and where the need to fight to keep things in an unequal position are released.

Something collapses today, and this is a good thing, but it will cause instability or uncertainty or some sort of scarcity feeling. This may be that we hear of the closing of a business or the ending of something that we had gotten used to. Something stops, but soon something new will sprout from this growth. You may also stop something or put a delay on it to give it more time to blossom and THIS IS ENCOURAGED.

We are so close to Mercury Retrograde, which as I have been telling everyone for over a DECADE is a GREAT OPPORTUNITY to rethink something and to add brilliant creative touches. I ALWAYS redo my website, business and projects during this time!

So if you have been rushing something, slow down. The rest of this year and into 2017 is about inspiration to make something have a better chance in the future. So to push anything forward now is choking it of life that it COULD have if you just can be more patient about deadlines and wanting to live up to some schedule.

So don't judge yourself for feeling behind and as if you are missing some boat! But do take steps forward into YOUR PLAN. Write it out. Play with long term visions. Honor that good things take lots of time to create! And watch for signs that are showing you to slow down or think again! Signs are for sure guiding us with something we are wanting to move forward on -- but feeling anxious or stressed are sure ones that are indicating the need to slow down and rethink something.

There also is a sensitivity LEAVING us, but through close examination of feeling like we have no gifts and no value. So you will feel hopeless or low around these days as you compare yourself to others and think you are in some way flawed, but that low has a trampoline to it and after you DEAL with something you will bounce back up to greater heights.

Numerology Vibration: 1 4 5

1: Energy is moving towards and igniting the themes of the other numbers.

4: This is a day that a lesson will be learned! This number tends to bring tests and situations that don't feel all that wonderful. You are learning something here.
